RUSSIAN FLEET SAILS FROM VIGO.

British Government Somewhat Irritated Because It Was Not Notified.

NO HITCH IN NEGOTIATIONS.

Foreign Office Anxious but No Serious Consequences Are Anticipated.

THE INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION.

Nothing Definite Decided Regarding Its Details—London Full of All Kinds of Scare Suggestions.

Vigo, Spain, Nov. 1.—All the Russian warships left here at 8 o'clock this morning. The Russian squadron was followed by the Spanish cruiser Estremadura.

Heavy firing was heard in the offing this morning. It was attributed to artillery practice.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT ANNOYED

London, Nov. 1.—The government has received a notification from the British consul at Vigo that the Russian squadron had sailed today and some irritation was felt at the fact that the Russian government had failed to previously notify the government regarding the departure of the squadron. Ambassador Benckendorff is hourly expecting official advice and while the foreign office obviously is annoyed at not knowing officially that Russia had carried out her part of the bargain no serious consequences are anticipated. It was officially stated by the Associated Press that with the exception of the foregoing omission to notify the government no hitch has occurred.

Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador, was received in audience by King Edward at Buckingham palace this afternoon. It is assumed that the ambassador was the bearer of a message from Emperor Nicholas.

Ambassador Benckendorff had a most cordial interview with the king, who, it is understood, expressed for transmission to St. Petersburg his satisfaction at the present method of settling the dispute.

Up to the time he saw the king Count Benckendorff had received no notification that a detachment of officers from the Russian squadron at Vigo would attend the sessions of the international commission, nor had he heard of the sailing of the squadron from Vigo. The ambassador hoped, however, to receive without delay information concerning the officers detached.

The ambassador informed the Associated Press that the departure of the squadron would naturally follow the detachment of these officers in accordance with the understanding reached between himself and Foreign Secretary Lansdowne last week. Nothing definite has yet been decided regarding the details of the sailing of the squadron.

Another cabinet meeting has been summoned for Wednesday to consider the Anglo-Russian convention covering the inquiry into the North sea incident.

Count Benckendorff had a long conference at the foreign office last night with Premier Balfour, Lord Selborne, first lord of the admiralty, as well as Foreign Secretary Lansdowne were present. It is stated that the draft of the proposed convention relative to the composition and venue of the international commission was drawn up. As this must be submitted to St. Petersburg for acceptance or revision it will necessarily entail delay. The lack of information vouchsafed officially to the press regarding the causes of the delay leads to all kinds of scare suggestions on the part of the public and tends to spread rumors which it is difficult to find adequate reason.

DISPATCHES FOR BRITISH FLEET.

Villagarcia, Spain, Nov. 1.—The British fleet, including the armored cruiser Bacchante, flagship of Rear Admiral Sir Baldwin Walker, commanding the British division of the Mediterranean fleet, anchored in the harbor this morning. The British cruiser Doris arrived during the day with dispatches for the fleet here and left again this afternoon.

WORKING ON DETAILS.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—According to the latest dispatches received at the foreign office here, the details of the international commission which is to inquire into the North sea incident are being worked out in London and are not yet finished.

Gibraltar, Nov. 1, 4 p. m.—All the British ships are now lying at anchor, but they are all ready to sail.

SITUATION AT GIBRALTAR.

No Explanation of the Warlike Preparations There.

London, Nov. 1, 4:22 p. m.—There is no explanation yet of the apparently alarming telegrams from Gibraltar, but at the admiralty the movements of the warships are stated to be in complete compliance of the plans for mobilization, which terminated Sunday. There appears to have been some conflict in the orders changes to the fleet owing to the sudden changes in the diplomatic situation which may possibly account for the fleet's movements.

Both at the foreign office and at the British embassy it is positively stated that there is no hitch in the negotiations except Russia's failure to notify the British government of the names of the officers detached from the Russian squadron.

Few Mines Hoisting Coal.

St. Louis, Nov. 1.—Dispatches from Illinois points indicate that less than 100 of the 303 coal mines in that state are hoisting coal today as a result of the strike of engineers, which went into effect at midnight. The total number of operators who deserted their posts of duty is about 800, and nearly 50,000 miners are thrown out of work as a result.

The engineers do not look for an early settlement of the difficulties, which were brought about by the action of the operators in cutting the wages of hoisting engineers.

ANTI-JEWISH RIOTERS ON TRIAL.

Proceedings at Gomel, Russia, Are Slow, With Open Doors and Attract Much Attention.

THERE ARE ELEVEN DEFENDANTS

Sixty-Nine Other Persons Are Held Under Bail on the Same Charges.

975 WITNESSES ARE PRESENT.

Government Produced Evidence That Jews Were Thoroughly Organized. Have Leaders, etc.

Gomel, Russia, Nov. 1.—The trial of the persons charged with being responsible for the anti-Jewish riots here in September, 1903, is proceeding slowly and with open doors, and is attracting immense interest. There are 11 defendants and 69 other persons who are under the same charge are being held under bail. Nine hundred and seventy-five of the 1,101 witnesses are present. The government's witnesses are attempting to prove that the disorders of Sept. 11, 1903, were in the nature of anti-Christian riots and not of anti-Jewish character. It is claimed that the first riot was organized by Jews to take vengeance for the Kishineff affair, while the rioting two days after was a retaliation upon the Jews. The government produced evidence to prove that the Jews were thoroughly organized and armed and had pre-arranged signals, regular leaders, adopted a provocative attitude towards the Christians and acted overbearing, insulting peasants in the streets and jostling them off the sidewalks.

"On the afternoon of Sept. 11, it is added, a crowd of a trifling number, being a Christian forerunner and a Jewess were in the forerunner's face, a fight followed and Jews ran up and bore the forerunner. Some Christians from the Jewish houses, the Jews came to the forerunner. The free fight then became general, the Jewish signal was given and the whole Jewish population assembled, attacking the Christians regardless of sex or age, a girl being dragged along the road by her hair. The peasants engaged in dispersing them, while the Jews elsewhere were attacking every Christian they could find. The first volley fired by the soldiers, the two sides anathematizing each other, finally hurling stones. Appeals of the police chief to the rioters to disperse were vain. At last a policeman was struck by a brickbat, and the workmen, shouting "The Jews have killed a policeman," surged across the bridge. Then there were revolvers shots from the Jews, whereupon the captain commanding the soldiers placed his company between the opposing forces and the workmen finally were dispersed in the direction of the suburbs. But the Jews would not even listen to a rabbi who was present and the soldiers finally charged them with bayonets, and access to the Jewish quarter was closed. In the meantime the workmen were re-assembling on the outskirts of the town,
